

KEHA Building Blocks for Success

Role Reality Word Match

We often hear terms like communicate, support, organize, and empower used to describe the roles individuals play in relation to their careers, volunteer work, leadership positions, and community activities, but do we understand the meaning of the terms? This activity challenges you to match the role terminology described in the KEHA Building Blocks for Success handout with their actual definitions. Match each term to the left below with a definition in the right column.
