

A Vision

by Ann Adams, Simpson County

The artist closes her eyes ,

As she takes her brush in hand.

And in her mind she sees,

A beach of soft white sand.

She can see an ocean of deep blue water,

With its waves rolling gently in.

And sandy dunes covered with beach grass,

Blowing gracefully in the wind.

Fluffy white clouds dancing slowly,

Across the sky of pale blue.

With eyes open she begins to paint,

Hoping her vision will come true.
